DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-13, 17, 18, 27, 28, 34-38, 40, 43 and 47, drawn to a method of repressing, delaying or otherwise reducing expression of a target gene in an animal cell, wherein said target gene is endogenous to the animal cell.

Group II, claim(s) 1-11, 14-33, 36-39 and 41-47, drawn to a method of repressing, delaying or otherwise reducing expression of a target gene in an animal cell, wherein said target gene is derived from the genome of a pathogen.

The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Groups I and II are united in that they both comprise the special technical feature of introduction of nucleic acid molecules comprising tandem copies of a nucleotide sequence identical to or complementary to the nucleotide sequence of a target gene. However, as evidenced by the International Search Report mailed 10 May 1999, suppression of target gene expression by introduction of nucleic acid molecules comprising tandem copies of a nucleotide sequence identical to or complementary to the nucleotide sequence of a target gene was known in the art at the time the instant application was filed. As the method of suppressing target gene expression does not represent a contribution over the prior art, the claims of Group I lack a special technical feature that is the same as or that corresponds to a special technical feature of Group II. Thus there is no special technical feature linking the recited Groups, as would be necessary to fulfill the requirement for unity of invention.

The method of Group I, being directed to suppression of endogenous genes within an animal cell, differs in both function and effect from the method of Group II, which is directed to suppression of genes comprised within the genome of a pathogenic organism. For example, the function and effect of the method of Group I could be to suppress neoplastic cell growth by inhibiting expression of an oncogene, while the function and effect of the method of Group II is limited to inhibiting expansion or toxicity of a pathogen.

Claims 2-11, 17, 18, 27, 28, 36-38, 43 and 47 embrace both Groups I and II and will therefore be examined only to the extent that they read on the elected subject matter.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
